Maximum Salary of an Acting Amildar

FILE No. 125 of 1903-04.

Minimum Salary of an Acting Amildar.

1 From the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, No. 5551, dated 9th April 1904.
Requests that the Government may be pleased to issue a general order to the Comptroller directing that in all cases the salary of a sub pro tem Deputy Amildar acting as Amildar be taken at Rs. 130 per mensem.

2 To the Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja, No. Fl. 2896, dated 22nd April 1904.
Forwards the above letter for an expression of opinion.

3 From the Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, No. 6516—1513, dated 14th May 1904.
States that the Revenue Commissioner's proposal is objectionable on all points and that if the Government however deem it expedient to show special concession to the last class Acting Amildars, a minimum salary of Rs. 120 or so may be fixed for these officers as in the case of Munsiffs under Article 80A of the Mysore Service Regulations.

4 To the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, No. Fl. 1475, dated 9th September 1904.
Requests him to submit for the approval of Government draft addenda and corrigenda to the Mysore Service Regulations according to his suggestion.

5 From the Comptroller, No. 1772—Spl.-37, dated 17th September 1904.
Submits for the approval of Government draft addenda and corrigenda to the Mysore Service Regulations accordingly.

6 To the Comptroller and the Revenue Commissioner, No. Fl. 3818-9, dated 25th December 1904.
Directs that the following be added to Article 80 (A) of the Mysore Service Regulations:—
"An Acting Amildar irrespective of his substantive pay will be allowed to draw a minimum pay of Rs. 120 per mensem unless he is entitled to draw more under the Service Regulations.

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Proposing that a general order may be issued by Govt to the effect that the salary may be taken to be the pay of the sub pro tem appointment plus the usual allowance of 20% of the minimum pay of the Ag appt, and that the order may be given a wider scope to cover cases in all the grades of the Service

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The proposal is made with a view to relieve a sub pro tem Deputy Amildar from the anomalous position of, while acting as Amildar, drawing a salary less than what he was drawing as sub pro tem

Deputy Amildar. As admitted by the Revenue Commissioner, the Govt has often redressed this diminution in salary in each individual case by permitting it to be drawn at Rs 130, i.e. the pay of a Sub pro tem D.y Amildar, Rs 100, + Rs 30 which is 20 per cent of the pay of the last grade Amildar. The Comptroller to whom the

The minimum appears to be fair for pay of such an officer whose permanent pay is less than Rs 70 is appointed Straight as acting Amildar, instead of being first appointed as Subpostem Dy Amildar, he would get under the existing rules a Salary of less than Rs 100 pm. There may be no material difference bet. the Expenses of a Subpostem Dy Amildar and of an acting Amildar and for this reason it also is new to keep the extra Cost as low as possible. the pay of a Dy Amildar may be made the minimum pay of an acting Amildar.

Proposed addition of a clause to article 80 A of the Mysore Service Regulations fixing the minimum pay of a Sub-pro-tem Deputy Amildar acting for an Amildar, at Rs. 120/- per mensem.

Opinions of the Dewan and Councillors.

An acting Amildar may, irrespective of his substantive pay, be allowed to draw a minimum pay of Rs. 120/- per mensem, unless he is entitled to draw more under the Service Regulations.

A note may accordingly be inserted in its proper place in the Service Regulations.

Submitted to His Highness.

The proposed addition of a clause to article 80 A of the Service Regulations fixing the minimum pay of a sub-pro-tem Deputy Amildar acting for an Amildar, at ₹s120 per month, may be sanctioned. This addition will set right the anomaly which has often occurred hitherto of a sub-pro-tem Deputy Amildar whose permanent pay may be less than ₹s70 getting less than the pay of his sub-pro-tem appointment, when appointed to act as an Amildar. It is desirable that an acting Amiladr, whatever his permanent pay may be, should get an increased minimum pay in keeping with his new appointment.

TO L. Ananta Swami Row Esqre BA.
Offg. ~~The~~ Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

SIR,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that references are frequently received from the Deputy Commissioners of Districts regarding the pay of Sub pro tem Deputy Amildars appointed to act as Amildars. As Deputy Amildar sub pro tem an Officer draws salary at ~~Rs~~ 100/- per mensem. If he is appointed to act as Amildar he would draw only the pay of his permanent appointment plus the acting allowance of a last grade Amildar. The result is that his salary as acting Amildar is less than his pay pay as Sub-pro tem Deputy Auildar.

That promotion should thus cause a diminution in salary is an anomaly which Government have often re-dressed by ordering in individual cases that the salary of a Sub pro tem Deputy Auildar acting as Auildar shall be taken at Rs 130/- per mensem.

2. With a view to diminishing reference and correspondence and saving the officers concerned the awkwardness of having to concern themselves about their pay and allowances in the new appointments to which they are promoted, I beg to suggest that Government may be pleased to issue a general order to the Comptroller to allow this concession in all cases.

3. The foregoing statement refers only to Taluk charges. And it is worth considering whether the instruction to the Comptroller may not take a wider scope covering all grades in the

the public service and direct ~~that~~ in all cases where an official holding a ~~sub~~ protem appointment is made to act in a higher post, his salary may be taken to be the pay of the ~~sub~~ pro tem appointment plus the usual allowance of 20 per cent of the minimum pay of the higher post in which he is made to act.

SIR,

With reference to your docket No.71:2396 dated 22nd April 1904 forwarding for opinion copy of letter No.5551 of the 7th idem from the Revenue Commissioner suggesting that the Government might be pleased to issue a general rule that the salary of a Sub pro tem Deputy Amildar when appointed to act as Amildar be fixed in all cases at Rs.130 per mensem, I have the honor to state that generally when an officer is on leave without allowances or on deputation another officer is appointed sub pro tem in his stead under Art:74 of the Mysore Service Regulations, and although such sub pro tem officer is entitled to draw the full pay of the acting appointment during his absence on privilege leave, his claim to that pay ceases from the date of return to duty of the permanent incumbent. Similarly if a permanent Deputy Amildar who is absent on leave without allowances or on deputation returns to his appointment, the officer who was appointed sub pro tem Deputy Amildar during his absence and subsequently appointed Acting Amildar, ceases to have a lien on the Deputy Amildars appointment and not under the arrangement suggested by the Revenue Commissioner he will draw Rs.100 (the pay of the Deputy Amildars appointment) as his substantive pay plus

Rs.30 the acting allowance on the pay of Amildar, which in my opinion is objectionable as two officers (i.e. the permanent Deputy Amildar and the ex Sub pro tem Deputy Amildar appointed as Acting Amildar) will simultaneously draw the pay of the Deputy Amildar's appointment.

Further when a Sub pro tem Deputy Amildar is appointed to act as an Amildar, another officer also may be appointed Sub pro tem Deputy Amildar under Article 74 in lieu of the one appointed to act as Amildar. Even then the two officers will draw the full pay of the Deputy Amildar's appointment. It will thus be seen that the Revenue Commissioner's proposal is objectionable on all points. If the Government however deem it expedient to show some special concession to the last class Acting Amildars, a minimum salary of Rs.120 or so may be fixed for these officers as in the case of Munsiffs under Article 80A.
